Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

Well, as usual when we come out with a statement to the effect that something is one way and not the other, somebody shows us that it is the other.

Such was the case Saturday when Clifford out at Clifford's Outfitter Service at Five Points brought in some green Zinnias. We had mentioned before, so he just brought in some dandelions.

Bells of Ireland are green but we thought these were the leaves of the plant and not the flowers. We found out that they are the flowers. Folks usually pull the leaves off when they use them and just leave the green bells.

Anyway Clifford brought in some green Zinnias. He says they just came out.

Clifford sows the flower bed in front of his station with Zinnias each year and he grows some whoopers. Every color of the rainbow.

They provide a bright spot for passersby for several weeks of the year.

We always enjoy Mrs. Cleo Farmer's two big pots of ferns. They sit on each side of the front steps.

Miss Gladys Scott has a nice red maple in her yard.

If you want to hear a beautiful voice, listen sometime to Miss Linda Darnell. Her voice is clear as a bell and perfectly pitched.

Nice folks, Bro. and Mrs. Gerald Ellison.

Mrs. Gene Hurn reports a Blue Jay who picked up some food she put out, flew around the house and hid it, then flew back for more.

James Meredith on another "march" in Mississippi. This is provocative action and merely aggravates a tense situation. It also falls into the category of "robbing it in" and is saporific in its character.

Congratulations to Miss Rosetta Robertson on being installed as Grand Chaplain at the Grand Assembly of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls. We have known Rosetta since she was a very small girl and she has grown into a lovely young lady with a pleasing personality.

Mrs. Frank Fitch says she has a strainer which she uses to dump macaroni into when she drains it. This beats trying to keep the slippery stuff from tumbling out of a pan while you try to drain the water out of it.

The manufacturer should print on the directions how you should drain the stuff, for amateurs.

Watching a Squirrel peeling kernels of corn from an ear of corn we tied up in a tree. He would get a kernel, slip down the tree, bury the kernel, then run back up and get another and repeat the process. He had something going.

80 Americans Give Lives In Hand To Hand Fight Thursday

By VIRGIL KRET

United Press International
DAR-TO, Vietnam (UPI) — The padre knelt before the piles of blood-stained American uniforms and boots and prayed for the souls of the men who once wore them.

But the survivors of Alpha Company of the 173rd Airborne Brigade fingered their weapons today and watched the rifle line to their front.

Alpha lost 80 men over three Thursday in seven hours. Seventy-five of the dead came from two units now called the lost platoons. The chaplain dealt with God. The survivors burned to deal with the Communists who did it.

"There isn't much to say. We met a bunch of gooks and got in a firefight. We'll go back and fight them again," said Sgt. Ricky Sanchez, 22, of Chico, Calif.

About 100 In Kirksey Ball
Program

Approximately one hundred boys are taking part in the summer baseball program sponsored by the Kirksey Baseball Association at the baseball field at the Kirksey School.

Three leagues have been organized namely the Pony for 13, 14, and 15 year olds, the Little for 9, 10, 11, and 12 year olds, and the Park for 7 and 8 year olds.

The "Pony" league is composed of two teams and plays each Monday and Thursday nights. The Braves, coached by Cecil McLeod, are leading the Dodgers, coached by Richard McLeod. One tie has been reported, the Braves are leading the series with four wins and three losses while the Dodgers have won three and lost four.

Two teams also make up the Park league which plays on Monday and Thursday nights. The Indians, coached by Charles Smith, are leading with six wins and two losses, while the Yanks, coached by Larry Cunningham, have won two and lost six.

The Little League is composed of four teams and plays on Tuesday and Friday nights. The Cardinals, coached by James Tucker, is leading the series with five wins and two losses, while the Reds, coached by James C. Paschall, are next with four wins and three losses.

Lubie Parrish is the coach for the Braves who have won four and lost four, and Kenneth Simmons is the coach for the Cubs who have recorded two wins and six losses.

The games start at 6:30 p.m. each night. The concession stand, staffed by the parents of all the players, is open each night.

This is the third year for the baseball program at Kirksey. Donations from the business people of Murray and Calloway County was asked for the first year, but since that time the association is supported by receipts from the concession stand and uncollected donations. It is not included in the budget of the United Fund.

The baseball association will once again play the Calloway County Fair during the week of July 16-22. Games will be suspended for that week and also during the week of July 2-8 while the revival is being conducted at the Kirksey Methodist Church, located adjacent to the baseball field.

Howard "Buster" McCallion, president of the Kirksey Baseball Association, invites the public to attend the games held on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday nights at the Kirksey baseball field.

CHINESE DOWN PLANE
WASHINGTON (UPI) — A U.S. Air Force Phantom jet was shot down by Red Chinese planes early today when it strayed into Communist airspace near Hainan Island, the Pentagon announced.

The two pilots aboard were rescued from the China Sea.

CITIZENS ISSUED
On the records of the Murray Police Department are the following citations: driving without a city sticker, 21; public drunkenness, four; reckless driving, three; breach of peace, one; and DWI, one.

about 475 of the 800 elite North Vietnamese troops who threw themselves, screaming, at the Americans today they had counted only 106 bodies. But the Communists had 27 hours to carry away their dead.

On the military reports, those seven hours ticked off simply. The 200 Americans were strung out along the ridge line and below, the two doomed platoons at the base of the steep slope. The four or five Communists they thought they had run into turned out to be two battalions. The Americans had 600 rounds of ammunition per man. Down below, at the base of the slope, that wasn't enough. And the jungle there was too thick; it absorbed U.S. mortar fire like a sponge.

Attack In Force
Capt. David B. Milton, 28, of Dallas, Texas, Alpha's commander, said the ordeal came in Vietnam's toughest jungle.

"Initially we thought we had run into five or six Viet Cong. You have no idea of the fights that took place. . . those men took three hand-to-hand attacks on the first perimeter at the bottom of the slope and we took one on the hill. The Communists screamed bloody murder when they attacked.

"The men were excellent and there was always somebody in command down there. At one point, I was talking to three of our three radios. They had apparently taken over the platoon.

"There is no way to convey to the folks back home what they did there. They took on 800 fresh, hard new North Vietnamese troops and killed over half of them."

Down at the bottom of the slope the scene was "horrifying," said Pfc. John Steer, 18, of Minneapolis, Minn., who pulled wounded men up the hill. "I never dreamed anything like that could be possible," he said.

Execute Wounded
"They'd charge and we'd kill enough of them to make them fall back and they'd hit us again. I think they were all high on pot or dope or something," Steer said. I looked at the helmets taken from the dead of the Viet platoon. There were tell-tale smudges, nasty holes in them. The Communists executed the American wounded they found.

Five men survived the two platoons at the bottom of the hill. All wounded, they crawled into dense brush and waited until the Communists had shot the wounded lying in the open and stripped off the foot and weapons from the dead and moved off.

When the reinforcements came, they found the bodies of the lost units clustered in the defensive positions they fought from until death ended the ordeal at the bottom of the slope.

"As soon as our replacements got here, we're going to go back up there and get them," said Pfc. Kenneth Maynard, 18, of Jacksonville, Fla.

Each time he is seen, say witnesses, he runs swiftly into woods and disappears. Henry County Sheriff F. F. Wells Jr. and Chief Deputy Leon Williams have made repeated trips to the Pleasant Hill section of the Reynoldsburg Road, but have found nothing more than footprints.

The man has been reported seen three or four times last week. Witnesses agree that he has a full beard and long hair and is dressed in a black shirt and black pants with a grey cap or hat. On two occasions, witnesses said, he was carrying a gun — perhaps a rifle.

One of the witnesses who saw a gun is Walter French, a small worker who lives on Mansfield Road one-quarter mile south of Pleasant Hill Church, two miles south of the Reynoldsburg Road and about 12 miles from Paris.

French said the man ran across a road in front of his car Tuesday afternoon about a mile and a half from his house.

"I couldn't say whether he was white or black," French said. "He looked kind of yellow."

Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne French, who live in the same location, said they saw the man Monday.

Two Accidents Are Reported On Weekend

Two accidents were reported to the Murray Police Department over the weekend.

Saturday night at 11:21 p.m. a car driven by Delbert Dan Garland, 1623 College Farm Road, Murray, hit a car owned by Wallace A. Fields, Hales Trailer Court, Murray.

Mr. Garland who was driving a 1965 Chevrolet, two-door hardtop had the left side of his car damaged while the right rear of Mr. Fields' 1967 Chevrolet, four-door sedan was damaged.

According to Officers H. E. Wilson, Alvin Harris and Dan Kelley, who investigated, Mr. Garland was leaving Lloyd's Drive-In, headed west on Clark Street. Garland's three gun 270 feet and struck Mr. Fields' car. After hitting the field car Garland skidded 90 feet beyond leaving the pavement and stopped approximately 90 feet beyond the field car.

Officers Brown and Morris investigated another accident at 6:30 p.m. Sunday. Involved were Ronnie Dean Crowell, 508 E. Maple, Dresden, Tenn., and Cathy Barrow Allen, 894 N. 19th, Murray.

Miss Allen was driving a 1965 Corvair, two-door and Mr. Crowell was driving a 1967 Chevrolet, two-door hardtop, which had damage to the front end.

According to the investigating officers, Miss Allen was going south on 18th street and had stopped for a stop sign and did not see Mr. Crowell. She then pulled out into Main Street, was going east. Mr. Crowell, who was also going east on Main Street said he saw Miss Allen and thought she was going to remain stopped. Mr. Crowell applied his brakes and skidded about 80 feet, striking Miss Allen on the right side, sliding sideways into a bank and drive-way culvert.

Strange Bearded Man Is Sought In A Remote Section Of Henry County; Flees When Seen

Henry County officers are investigating reports of a strange, bearded man lurking in woods in a remote section of southeastern Henry County.

Each time he is seen, say witnesses, he runs swiftly into woods and disappears. Henry County Sheriff F. F. Wells Jr. and Chief Deputy Leon Williams have made repeated trips to the Pleasant Hill section of the Reynoldsburg Road, but have found nothing more than footprints.

The man has been reported seen three or four times last week. Witnesses agree that he has a full beard and long hair and is dressed in a black shirt and black pants with a grey cap or hat. On two occasions, witnesses said, he was carrying a gun — perhaps a rifle.

Number Of Local Students On Honor Roll At Murray State

A record 817 students, including 100 who made straight A's, have been listed on the Honor Roll at Murray State University for the spring semester, according to Registrar Wilson Ganit.

To qualify for the Honor Roll, a student must make a 3.3 (slightly better than a B) grade point average, based on a system in which each semester hour of 'A' earns four points, each hour of 'B' three points, and so on.

The total number of points earned is divided by the total semester hours of coursework attempted to arrive at the overall grade point average.

The number of students on the spring Honor Roll compares with 715 who were listed at the end of the fall semester.

Those students from Calloway County who earned a place on the Honor Roll are as follows: Clifford Alexander, Carol C. Allison, Donald Baker, Ronald Basson, Judith Bauman, Joyce Brandt, Beverly Brooks, Barbara Brown, Ella O. Brown, Myra Bucy, Judy Cathey, Sharon Cathey, Diana Cavitt, Carol Champion, Carol Chester, Shirley A. Cochran, Janet Collins, Judy Cooper, Carol Criswell, David Crowley, Jeta Culpepper, Alea Darnell, Linda Dible.

Quotes From The News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

WASHINGTON — President Johnson, addressing the nation Sunday night at the conclusion of his two-day summit conference with Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin at Glassboro, N.J.:

"I was able to make it very clear, with no third party between us, that we will match and outmatch every step to peace that others may be ready to take."

UNITED NATIONS — Soviet Premier Kosygin returns to original headline at a news conference held at the United Nations building after he returned from Glassboro:

"The United States is continuing its aggression against the Vietnamese people. This bitter struggle will never end unless the aggressor leaves Vietnamese soil."

WASHINGTON — Senate Republican leader Everett M.
Dirksen commenting after the Glassboro summit:

"I want to express my delight that the President had the guts... that he stood up to the position that evidently was asserted by the Soviet leader, so that now the matter probably awaits another meeting."

CHICAGO — The heads of three national medical organizations criticize the new president of the American Medical Association (AMA) for being more concerned with business than the Hippocratic oath:

"It is apparent that the AMA plans to continue its futile opposition to what has clearly been mandated by the American public — federal support for medical research, medical education, hospitals, medical insurance for the elderly, programs for the medically indigent and planning for community health care."

A Bible Thought For Today

What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

self for sins you condemn in others.

TIME OUT

by
GALE
GARRISON

We ran a picture of the American Legion team in Thursday's paper, and as always we did something wrong. We said that Mickey Holland was the only member of the team that wasn't there either. But Clayton Hargrove wasn't there either.
Friday, so there wasn't much of a way I could have known about it. Anyway one excuse is as good as another.

The Legion team won another game Friday night, and will be trying for their eighth win of the season tonight when they take on the Paris team at the Murray Field. Game time will be 8:30... go out and support the team!

I understand that Cleo Sykes is doing better and that he has gone home from the hospital. Best of luck to Cleo, he is missed around the field when the Legion team is playing. I hope it isn't too many days before he will be able to be back out there.

Walt (No-Neck) Williams, the rookie outfielder of the White Sox, was in on a play twice and by making a great play not only saved an error but got the man out, but could not be given credit for it, because of baseball's rules.

The situation was this: Boston pitcher Lee Stange was on second base when Jose Tartabull singled to right field.

Williams fielded the ball and threw it to cutoff man Tom McCraw. It was too late to get Stange at the plate, so McCraw went to shortstop Ron Hansen in an effort to cut down Tartabull, who had rounded first base deliberately to draw the throw away from the plate.

As Hansen prepared to chase Tartabull, he threw the ball past first base. There was no one there to catch it, and the ball was headed for the Boston dugout and an error.

Suddenly, to the astonishment of the fans and everyone else, Williams ran in and dived at the ball. He stopped it from going into the dugout and threw to Hansen at second in time to get Tartabull.

Scoring should have gone 3-3-6-9-6, but rules permit only one assist in a rundown for each fielder involved.

Maybe the rules should be changed, for one thing Williams was actually playing two positions, outfield and infield, on the same play.

Some days it just don't pay to get up.

A Year Ago in Sports: M.S.U.'s Jim Freeman finished seventh in the 100-yard dash event in the National AAU outdoor track and field event with a time of 9.7 seconds. Winner of the event was Charlie Green with a time of 9.4 seconds.

The Murray American Legion downed Camden, Tenn., 13-0, then went to Bowling Green and defeated them 13-7.

They also won a double header from Jackson, Tenn.

San Francisco was three games ahead of Pittsburgh and Baltimore was four games ahead of Detroit.

This Week's Question: Who was the only pitcher in the American League to pitch to both Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle?

Answer to Last Week's Question: Ted Williams holds the record for the most runs scored in an All-Star game. The game was played at Boston's Fenway Park and Williams pleased the home fans with one of the most magnificent shows in the history of the all-star game. In addition to the record setting four runs he scored, he hit two home runs, two singles and drew a walk in five times at bat. He also drove in five runs.

Best Explanation Is Always the Truth

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My sister has a son (I'll call him Joey) who was born out of wedlock. He is 6 years old. About 4 months ago my sister married a man who refuses to take Joey into his home, but he pays for his support. Joey now lives with our parents and he can't understand why his mommy "visits" him at Granny's but she won't take him "home" with her.

My sister hasn't told Joey anything. I feel he should be told something. But what? I think I have a right to ask this question because my mother is in poor health, and now my sister wants me to promise that I will look after Joey in case something happens to our mother. I am 24, have been self-supporting since I was 16, and plan to be married in June. Please withhold my name.

NAMELESS

DEAR NAMELESS: Joey should be legally adopted by someone who wants him. Ideally you, since you appear to be the only one who is sufficiently concerned about what the boy thinks.

Under the circumstances, the only explanation would be the truth. No one can be forced to raise a child he doesn't want. And if he could, I'd pity the poor child.

DEAR ABBY: Your advice to the father who was worried because his son was smoking pot showed that you don't know what you're talking about.

Marijuana is NOT a drug. It is NOT habit-forming. It is NOT as injurious to the body as alcohol. And it serves a very useful purpose in that it relaxes a person, sharpens his senses and gives him a happy, carefree, all-is-right-with-the-world feeling. So, Dear Abby, what is wrong with that?

SMOKES POT

DEAR SMOKES: Anything, whether it's inhaled, injected, or taken on a cube of sugar to induce a "happy, carefree, all-is-right-with-the-world feeling," when all is NOT right with the world, poses a serious threat. The reason is obvious. It creates a false sense of security and well-being.

While marijuana itself may not be habit-forming, the "habit" of fleeing from reality rather than facing it can be as destructive to the human personality as a drug addiction.

Altho many authorities on narcotics insist that not all marijuana smokers graduate to heroin or morphine, it would certainly be an easy transition for those who would try anything for kicks. For the same unscrupulous characters who peddle marijuana to kids are not above trying to hook them on the stronger stuff.

DEAR ABBY: How does a father who has excelled in sports all his life adjust to a 15-year-old son who has never shown even a normal interest in sports?

I realize that not all boys can be great athletes, but my son has the build for it and the coordination. He could be really good if he wanted to, but he's lazy and isn't competitive in anything.

I have done my best to get him interested in sports ever since this boy was old enough to hold a ball. Abby, but it never caught on. I can tell you that it's not easy to be a good father to a boy like this. Any suggestions?

CORNHUSKER

DEAR CORNHUSKER: Yes, lay off. A "good" father forgets himself and thinks of his son. He then encourages the boy to grow in the direction he seems inclined.

Building Program At MSU Just "Keeps On Rollin' Along"

Like "Ol' Man River," the building program at Murray State University just keeps rollin' along. The university is in the midst of its biggest building boom ever, as evidenced by a count of structures occupied during the decades since its founding in 1923.

Only seven major buildings were constructed at Murray State between 1941 and 1960, not counting the 32 married-student houses of World War II vintage. Since 1961, if you don't count 144 married-student apartments, the university has occupied 14 major new structures. This is three more than were constructed between 1923 and the time enrollment began to fall off because of the war.

And the end is not yet in sight. As M.O. Wraether, director of public relations, puts it, "There's no use kidding ourselves, the campus is going to be torn up with construction for a long time to come."

Within the last week contracts were let for an addition to the laboratory school and an agricultural engineering building to replace one opened in 1941. Plans for a $2.5 million, eight-story classroom building were also revealed.

A contract may be let before the summer is out for a $3.3 million addition to the fine arts building. Likewise, this will be the largest single project ever undertaken at Murray State.

During the school year just ended, MSU moved into four new buildings and began using additions to two others. Hart Hall and White Hall, towering high-rise dormitories housing almost 900 men, were ready in September. A two-story addition to the education building was finally finished about the first of the year.

Lowry Library Annex, a nursing building and an agriculture pavilion were all occupied in April.

Presently under construction are a five-story administration building; Hester Hall, a high-rise dormitory for 300 women; and a $2.4 million addition to the science building which will double it in size.

The administration building and Hester Hall should be done this fall. Completion of the science building addition is a school year away.

Before the past school year was over, MSU also announced that preliminary planning had begun on another nine-story dormitory and a cafeteria, to be located adjacent to White Hall on the northeast campus, and a 16,000 seat football stadium which will include classrooms and faculty beneath the stands.

Other new buildings to come have so far been hinted at. Possibilities include two more dormitories in the White Hall area, dormitories in other areas as the need arises, a new fieldhouse, and an enlarged student center.

None of these are definite, but one thing does seem certain: The face of the campus just a few years from now will be as unfamiliar to students of today as today's campus is to students of the 40s.

T.V.A. Weekly Letter

TVA will open bids June 14 in Chattanooga for removal of a major portion of the 59-year-old Hales Bar Dam on the Tennessee River west of Chattanooga, after a new lake is impounded downstream next fall.

Because of persistent leakage through its poor foundation rock, the old dam is being replaced with Nickajack Dam, nearing completion. 6-1/2 miles downstream, Nickajack is scheduled to be closed in November. This will make the present Hales Bar Lake part of a new lake, operating at the same water levels but extending downstream to the new dam.

The portion of Hales Bar Dam to be removed includes the spillway and non-overflow sections of the dam, with a combined length of more than a thousand feet. These sections will be removed down to elevation 600 (32 feet below the normal minimum level of the new lake) between the lock on the west bank of the river and the powerhouse on the east bank. Those will remain.

The contractor is to drill holes for blasting charges in the downstream face of Hales Bar before Nickajack Lake is impounded in November. The contract will call for removal work to proceed quickly after impoundment of the Lake, flood season begins in January. Remaining work is to be completed by June 30 of next year.

During the removal operation, river flows will continue to pass through Hales Bar Lock until enough of the river is clear for flows to bypass the lock.

High May rainfall total reported to TVA was 13.66 inches at Belleville, Tenn., in the Elk River basin. Lowest was 3.80 inches at Konnarock, Va., near the eastern tip of Tennessee.

Leo The Lip Plays Hunch And Joe Niekro Cashes In On It

By JOE GERGEN
Sports Writer

Leo Duracher played a hunch and Joe Niekro cashed the winning ticket as the Chicago Cubs reaped their biggest payoff in four years. The Cubs, the darkest horses to make a run at the National League pennant in ages, stretched their winning streak to six games, the longest since 1963. Sunday and drew within four lengths of the pace-setting St. Louis Cardinals by virtue of a daily double sweep over Houston 4-1 and 4-0.

Duracher, who has been known to consult the form sheets in the past, put his money on young Joe Niekro in the nightcap although Rich Nye was the scheduled starter. Niekro led from start to finish in losing a three-hit shutout, the first of his major league career. It also marked the first time that the 22-year-old brother of Phil Niekro, Atlanta relief ace, had pitched a complete game, matching the feat of Bill Hands in the opener. Hands allowed five Astro hits in that one while collecting two of his own.

The twin victories raised the Cubs' record to 35-29. The Cubs finished a solid 10th in the 10-team league last year. They are currently third.

Phillies Win Two
Philadelphia knocked off St. Louis twice 6-4 and 10-4. Atlanta whipped New York 4-2. Pittsburgh edged second-place Cincinnati 5-4 and Los Angeles topped San Francisco 2-1 in other NL games.

Minnesota defeated the Chicago White Sox, the American League leaders, 3-1. New York tripped Detroit 3-2. Boston battered Cleveland 6-2. Baltimore walloped Washington 10-0.

Murray Legion Wins Two From Hoptown

Murray beat Hoptown Legion both ends of a double header behind the pitching of Phil Jones and Mickey Holland Friday night at Ty Holland stadium.

In the first game Jones allowed one run, struck out 5 and walked none. Murray scored 4 runs in the 6th inning for their only runs.

Mickey Holland pitched the second game allowing no runs, striking out 12 and walking one. The Murray nine one run in the second and two in the fifth for their tallies.

Murray will play Paris today at 5:30 at Ty Holland Stadium.

ington 8-3 and California clipped Kansas City 4-3.

Niekro, who pitched out of a bases-loaded, none out, situation in the second, was ably supported by old pro Ernie Banks, who collected four hits, among them his 13th and 14th homers, and drove in four runs.

Don Lock went on a batting rampage against the Cards as the Phils snapped St. Louis' seven-game winning streak. Lock collected six hits, including a two-run homer in each game, drove in six runs, scored four and stole a base in the twin-bill.

Homers In Two
His homer in the fifth inning of the first game was the decisive blow as Jim Bunning posted his seventh victory and he staked the Phils to a 3-0 lead in the first inning of the nightcap with his eighth homer.

Clete Boyer, once an out-man with the Yankees, drove in all four runs in Atlanta's victory over the Mets with a double and two singles before being removed in the fifth with a pulled muscle. Phil Niekro pitched one-hit ball over the final three innings to preserve Pat Jarvis' seventh triumph.

Matty Alou, who had three hits, and Manny Jimenez, purchased from Columbus the previous day, broke a 1-1 deadlock with six-inning homers as the Pirates topped the slumping Reds. Bob Veale, who needed relief help from Al McBean and Juan Pizarro to nail down his ninth win, drove in the eventual winning run in the seventh with an infield out.

Len Gabrielson's pinch single with two out in the ninth scored Willie Davis from second base and enabled the Dodgers' Don Drysdale to even his record at 7-7. Frank Taney, who pitched the ninth, suffered his fifth loss in eight decisions.

Rick Reichardt's Trial And Error Method Is Paying Off

By JOE CARNICELLI
Sports Writer

Rick Reichardt's trial and error method of batting this season has finally begun to show some results. The former Wisconsin star, who signed for approximately $200,000 in 1964, had been experiencing some difficulty finding a comfortable stance at the plate this season. His different styles at bat brought him three strikeouts Friday night and Saturday he found himself on the California bench.

Manager Bill Rigney restored his 24-year-old stringer to a starting role Sunday and Reichardt, batting with the bases loaded in the first inning, crashed an inside the park grand slam home run to account for all the California scoring and lead the Angels to a 4-3 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

Reichardt's blast hit the top of the 40-foot screen that extends over the 392-foot mark in right field at Municipal Stadium and bounced back past Athletics' right fielder Mike Hershberger. Before the A's could finally run the ball down, Reichardt crossed the plate safely.

Changes Since

"I've been having a lot of trouble hitting in the last couple of weeks," said Reichardt. "I think it's because I'm alternating my stances so much," explained the Angels outfielder whose average after the game was only .241.

Elsewhere in the American League, Minnesota downed Chicago 3-1. New York edged Detroit 3-2. Boston trounced Cleveland 8-3 and Baltimore dumped Washington 8-9.

In National League action, Philadelphia swept a pair from St. Louis 5-4 and 10-4. Chicago downed Houston twice 4-1 and 8-0. Atlanta topped New York 4-2. Pittsburgh tripped Cincinnati 5-4 and Los Angeles trimmed San Francisco 2-1.

Minnie Rojas put down an Athletics uprising in the eighth to give starter George Brunet his fourth victory against 11 losses. Rojas, pitching with runners on first and third, struck out Jim Goeger and Danny Cater after four consecutive singles had given the A's two runs.

Pinchhitter Early Batters tripled one two runs with two out in the eighth inning to bring Minnesota from behind against the White Sox. Chicago starter Tommy John limited the Twins to only two hits over the first 7 2-3 innings. Zolo Versalles and pinchhitter Frank Kostro then singled and Batters tripled to right center to wipe out a 1-0 White Sox lead.

Yankees Triple Play

Tom Tresh singled home two runs in the fourth inning and Mickey Mantle singled across another in the American League's first triple play this season in downing the Tigers for the third straight day.

With runners on first and second in the fifth inning, pinchhitter Jerry Lumpe lined a 3-2 pitch at second baseman Horace Clarke, who tossed to shortstop Ruben Amaro to retire Don Wertz at second. Amaro then fired to first to get Ray Oyler and complete the triple play.

Carl Yastrzemski, Bob Tillman and Joe Foy powered home runs and Gary Bell posted his 100th major league victory as the Red Sox beat the Indians.

Frank and Brooks Robinson cracked three hits each to trigger four scoring bursts that propelled the Orioles over the Senators.

Hits by the Robinsons highlighted two runs rallies in the first and third innings, a one run fifth inning and a three run seventh inning barrage. Rookie Tom Phoebus, who had two of the Orioles' 15 hits, notched his fifth victory in nine decisions.
